This new song explains that ... “A Mother’s Love” ... will be felt ... “ONCE MORE.”

His words were written on February 4th 1985 while driving 317 miles on California freeways from Newport Beach to Merced, ... a pen in one hand with the steering wheel in the other ... for seven hours. Forty years later those lyrics have not changed ... and never will. They glow & grow again in this new song.

The day before that long drive, Del had sailed his boat back to the dock in Newport Beach, when he saw his brother standing there on the dock with a sad face. What he heard next, was that their Mother had passed that morning from a sudden stroke ... 13 days before her 57th birthday ... while getting ready for church ... to celebrate their Wedding Anniversary. A sad Sunday, it was.

The next day, Del called his office, explained the situation, canceled meetings, and started his seven-hour drive to Merced to be with his Dad, who had witnessed everything. During that 1985 drive he wrote the lyrics for his Mother’s Eulogy ... and those same lyrics are now in this new song. Three hours before her
